Four Young Men Fined.

We learn from the Mendon Constitution that Ernest and Emmet Lambert, Harvey Whiting and George Tietjens, four young men of near Newhall, were arraigned before Squire Nathan Clair of Newhall Monday of last week, charged with disturbing the peace of a widow, Mrs. Hoag, and her children Sunday night, October 22. All four young men pleaded guilty to the charge, and each was fined $5 and costs, amounting, in all, to $13.50. The trouble which led up to the arrest of the young men was about as follows: On the evening of Sunday, October 22, the two Lamberts, Whiting and Tietjens had attended services at some church in the neighborhood, and on their way home passed the home of Mrs. Hoag. They were under the influence of liquor, and, being out for a good time, they made an attempt to enter the home of the widow, whereupon they were shot at by Mrs. Hoag's son, who is about 18 years old. Young Hoag missed his aim and none of the intruders was injured. The next day Hoag had the young men arrested, charged with disturbing the peace.

Cupid's Conquests.

HECKE-KUNZLER.—Wm. A. Hecke and Miss Laura Kunzler, both of Brunswick, were married in that city Sunday, November 12, 1905, Rev. C. H. Owen tying the nuptial knot.

LAMBERT-FULLER.—H. E. Lambert of Newhall and Miss Ella A. Fuller of Mike were married at the residence of the officiating justice of the peace, Nathan Clair of near Newhall, Thursday, November 9, 1905.

FEAKER-CLICKNER.—Jos.

Feaker and Mrs. Rosa Clickner, both of Brunswick, were married in the office of Recorder J. M. Mason at the courthouse, in Keytesville, Thursday, November 16, 1905, Rev. Alpha Ingle making the twain one.

DOTSON-STEWART.—Jas. R.

Dotson and Miss Willie Stewart, both of near Keytesville, were married at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. Hughes of Dalton, Thursday, November 16, 1905. The attendants were John A. Hise and Miss Dollie Foster.

After the marriage ceremony the bridal couple and their attendants and a few invited guests took supper in honor of the nuptials at John Garnett's, the bridegroom's brother-in-law.

The bride is a winsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, while the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Martha Dotson, and is an industrious and worthy young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Dotson will make their home on Dr. H. T. Garnett's farm, 4 1-2 miles northwest of Keytesville. The COURIER extends congratulations, and desires to be remembered among the sincere well wishers of this newly wedded pair.

SHUPBECK-HOLMAN.—About

40 guests assembled at the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Holman, 3 1-2 miles north of Keytesville, Wednesday, November 15, 1905, to witness the beautiful and impressive ceremony performed by Rev. Alpha Ingle of Keytesville, which united the hearts and lives of George Shupbeck and Miss Mary Holman, two worthy young people of the Bethany neighborhood. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Edith Stender, and the attendants were Jim Holman, brother of the bride, and Miss Eva Lee. The house was decorated with geranium leaves and white chrysanthemums. After the ceremony and usual congratulations, the bridal party was invited to the dining-room where a supper, consisting of cakes, fruit and candies was served. Mr. and Mrs. Shupbeck left Thursday for Huntsville where they will visit the latter's sister, Mrs. J. C. Jenkins. The COURIER joins in wishing that their pathway through their wedding life may be strewn with flowers and sunshine.

FRENCH-EAGLESTON.—Quite a surprise was sprung on Keytesville's social circles Monday, November 13, 1905, when J. P. French of New York and Miss Pearl Eagleston, an attractive and popular young lady of Glasgow who has been employed as trimmer in Miss Julia B. Young's millinery establishment in this city during the past season, were married by Rev. S. Y. Pitts at the Neal hotel in Salisbury. The bridal couple have taken rooms at Mrs. G. W. Agee's and Mrs. French will remain with Miss Young until the close of the millinery season. The bride, during her stay in Keytesville, has, by her lady-like bearing and amiable disposition, made many friends who now shower their blessings upon her and her liege lord, and hope that her married life may be a perpetual honeymoon. The bridegroom is a nice-appearing young man and has been a member of troop "I" of the Eleventh cavalry out of Des Moines, Iowa, for the past three years, but was recently given an honorable discharge from Uncle Sam's service.
